

Geophysical Operations Advisor: John Hughes

Location: Adelaide

John Hughes is an independent Oil & Energy Professional with over 40 years international experience. John is Managing Director & Geophysical Operations Advisor at John R Hughes Geophysical Pty Ltd.

Highlights:

John's experience and qualifications:

- Highly experienced acquisition and processing geophysicist with an excellent command of environmental issues and economic objectives.
- Seismic project management including special emphasis on "Seismic Sound and Marine Life" issues, operations in challenging environments and near-surface problems in onshore data.
- Drove improvement of productivity whilst maintaining/improving data quality onshore Australia.
- Number of papers published on seismic acquisition and statics control improvements in the Cooper Basin.
- Ongoing management of seismic projects in Central Asia.
- Closely involved in Behavioural Response Study in which Australian Humpbacks are being exposed to seismic sounds in a rigorous scientific project involving researchers from 3 Australian Universities.
- Numerous presentations to industry, regulators and stakeholders on "Seismic Sound and Marine Life" issues.
- Honorary Member of ASEG (Australian Society of Exploration Geophysicists) - for "Distinguished Contributions to the Profession of Exploration Geophysics".
- Active Member of SEG, EAGE and PESA.
- Processing Manager, GSI, 14 years.
- Chief Operations Geophysicist, Santos, 24 years.
- John has a BSc in Geology from University of Wales, Aberystwyth

Contact us: info@ausgeos.com.au | www.AusGeos.com.au | M: 0423 153 122